

THE P. JULES AND PAMELA J. PATT MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Jules attended Keith Jr. High School and graduated from Altoona Area High School in 1961. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from Washington and Jefferson University in 1965, a master's degree in international law from American University and a law degree from the University of Maryland in 1968. He was a natural and gifted athlete, playing the position of guard for AAHS and Washington and Jefferson University. Jules met his beautiful wife Pam in college while they were planning a social mixer for W&J and Chatham College. They were married in November 1964 at his family home with Rabbi Nathan Kaber officiating.

As a young entrepreneur, Jules believed that anything was possible through hard work, creativity, focus and dedication. He believed in seeing the possibilities and in being willing to take the risks. He employed thousands of people during his career, and he took great pride in all of his developments and in the individuals who helped build, manage and operate them. He had a gift for recognizing talent and gave people a chance to succeed, and he was proud that many of his employees went on to start their own businesses.

Pamela was a 1965 graduate of Chatham College, Pittsburgh. She was president of Keystone Hospitality Group Inc. and vice president of The Patt Organization of Hollidaysburg, most notable for the development and operation of The Atherton Hotel in State College, Lake Raystown Resort, Lodge and Conference Center, Entriken as well as numerous commercial real estate developments throughout the mid-Atlantic region. Over the years, Pamela was involved in numerous volunteer and charitable organizations.

Jules and Pamela are survived by their three children: a son, Josh (Genevieve) Patt, and two daughters Samantha (Michael) Patt Kozak all of Hollidaysburg and Maggie Patt Biddle of State College, as well as, five grandchildren: Grace and Jane Patt Biddle, Ellie Ocelus and Sarah and Mollie Patt.
