

RELIANCE BANK SCHOLARSHIP

OUR HISTORY

1940 – The Reliance Building & Loan Association is formed through the merging of six businesses and quickly begins helping young couples become homeowners.

1953 – The Reliance Savings Association moves to downtown Altoona at 1119 12th Avenue where Reliance Bank remains headquartered to this day in a long-standing commitment to the community.

1968-1975 – Reliance merges with four more Building & Loan Associations, pooling the resources of like-minded companies for the greater good of the area.

1998 – Reliance Savings Bank becomes Reliance Bank, continuing to find new ways to serve the area and its people, many of whom are children and grandchildren of the bank's first customers.

2000 – Reliance introduces business banking services.

2003 – Reliance introduces online banking.

2020 – A new full-service Martinsburg branch is opened bringing the total number of branch locations to 8.

2021 – Reliance rolls out new logo, marking its commitment to keeping the brand fresh and meeting the everchanging needs of those we serve.

FOR THE LOVE OF COMMUNITY

Reliance Bank was born out of a love for this area, the communities we work in, and the people we serve. We're driven by our ability to help people pursue their dreams and achieve their goals, putting our expertise to work to make it all possible. Whether you're opening a new business, buying a home, or starting a new stage in life, together we'll find a way.
